R.A.F. Bombs Sea Gateways Into Albania

Fascist Destroyers Bombarding Island Of Corfu Put To Flight

Porto Edda, Durazzo and Esbassan Are Hit In Heavy Assaults Carried Out By Bombers During Night

ROME, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Italian sources claimed tonight that the Greek advance into Albania has been halted and that Fascist forces are preparing a counter-offensive. (Dispatches from Greece indicated no let-up in the Greek advance in Albania.)

ATHENS, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Pierce bombing of Italy's sea gateways into Albania and a rout of Italian destroyers bombarding the British-defended Greek island of Corfu were announced today by the Royal Air Force.

"Bomber aircraft carried out raids on Santi Quaranta (Porto Edda) where destroyers bombarding the island of Corfu fled on approach of our formations, Durazzo and Esbassan (Esbassan)," said a communique apparently covering action yesterday and last night.

LEAGUE ASKS FOR DEBT FREE MONEY ISSUE

Social Creditors Urge Credit For Benefit Of People

Resolution requesting the Dominion government to issue "debt-free" money through the Bank of Canada was passed by the convention of the Alberta Social Credit League at its Friday morning session in the Macdonald hotel.

The convention also urged that the league canvas the four provinces to obtain support for a "unanimous petition" asking the Dominion to instruct the Bank of Canada that the "credit of the people of Canada may be used for the interest of and for the benefit of the people and not merely in the interests of the Bank of Canada and the financiers."

The convention is continuing Friday afternoon, but is holding its final session in Macdonald Hall on 97 Street.

Commendation of the Manitoba Social Credit League on its opposition to participation in the coalition government of Manitoba on the terms set up by Premier John Bracken was expressed by the convention.

Miss Salome Henderson, Social Credit member of the Manitoba legislature, was praised for her stand in opposing her party joining the coalition.

The Manitoba S. C. League also is reading out of the party four members who joined the coalition who are endorsed.

A further resolution of the convention urged the Alberta government.

News Writer Finds That Greek Claims are Much On Conservative Side

The following dispatch is the first independent verification that Pogratetz, Albanian town 20 miles north of Koriza, has been captured by the Greeks. Its capture has not been claimed officially in Athens although it was reported in London. The Greek command said at that time only that its forces had "overrun" it.—EDITOR.

By PETER TOMPKINS

POGRATETZ, Albania (Via Athens), Nov. 29.—(AP)—Greek official communiques have been on the conservative side both as regards Italian casualties and the amount of booty taken.

Every Albanian village and all along the coastal sector through which I have travelled in this little wilderness 20 miles north of Koriza, I was amazed by the number of trucks, automobiles and guns littering the roadside. I saw nothing of the quantities of war materials already collected by the Greeks.

I can also understand now why the communiques have been so reserved about the present situation. In reality, there is no front and fighting, carried on by air, has left the area covered mountains, a being arrived on newly by small units. Those detachments operate more or less independently and communications are impossible for commanders even in immediate areas to know the exact situation.

Military leaders even in this advanced post are quite sure that far beyond here their forces have been retreating and are now in a state of confusion. They say, however, that their forces far from being in a state of confusion, they are in a state of complete readiness. They are in a state of complete readiness.

There is one report that Greek artillery is shelling remnants of the Parma and Vercelli divisions but that this is as definite as anything I have been able to learn. I am writing this dispatch on a destroyer used only for the day. I am an Italian officer who has been in the Greek city of Koriza for the last few days. I have been in the Greek city of Koriza for the last few days.

A. P. Phlips, the president in actual, advised, reviewed, Canada was a very good one. He was a very good one. He was a very good one.

WEATHER HEADSHIP
Greek forces apparently were in the area of the headship.

Paying It Way

It is good news that the CBC came through the last fiscal year with a surplus of $553,990. This was the amount on hand after all running expenses had been met, $18,674 set aside for depreciation of equipment, but nothing paid in interest on the capital invested—which in the case of a privately-owned company would mean no dividends paid to stockholders. As the system was created to give service, not to earn dividends, the showing will be highly satisfactory to all except those who would like to have the CBC operated by private systems given control of the air.

It is notable that this surplus was earned, not by giving less service, but while giving more. The broadcasting hours during the year were 10,473, about 25 per cent more than during the preceding year. It is to be noted also that the expenses raised when the license fee for receiving sets was raised, have been used to the best advantage. The listening public, it is fair to assume, are satisfied that they are getting good value for their money, which is the case.

So long as the system pays its way, including a fair allowance for the replacement of equipment, it can spend surplus funds for the improvement of the service without fear of popular protest. It is to be supposed it will be with the doing of the $553,990 in hand at the close of last year.

Nazi Interference Invited

The butchery in Rumania is a revenge "purge" for the slaughter of Iron Guard leaders two years ago. It is a revenge because that party now holds the whip hand, whereas before it was the victim. Suggestions that Antonescu will bring the perpetrators to justice lack conviction, since he is not likely to do so. The fact that he who suffers from his own actions, and whose silence he holds power and whose silence would likely enough mean his own destruction.

Berlin thinks that Antonescu may do this with the assistance of Nazi troops. Goebbels should expect some less gruesome subject for tomorrow's salutes. It is a fact that the Nazi troops that give their Rumanian allies the power of life and death over their political opponents and the Antonescu cabinet as well.

If political considerations had anything to do with the affair, it was something more than the payment of a large bribe. The presence of Nazi troops accounts for that. The Iron Guard has given Hitler a pretext for ousting the Government. If, as he desires, and replacing it by a German government, on the ground that the country is suffering its agony, which is the case. It does no injustice to the Nazi record elsewhere to suspect the bloody coup may have been staged for that purpose.

In any event there may be a reason for a tightening of Fuehrer authority, for the conditions are favorable. Should disorder continue and spread, the Government may find the final step in its downward progression from an independent country to a province of the Reich. Stalin will not fail to take that possibility into consideration. It is remembering that Rumania forms a link on the Black Sea and has several ports which would make admirable submarine bases.

Protection Against War Taxes

Up to the end of October, residents of Alberta had bought war savings certificates and stamps to an amount less than $5,000,000, while the total sales in Canada were less than $2,000,000.

If the figures for this province are not impressive, neither are the figures for the Dominion. For more than 100,000 stamps should have been bought, in Alberta alone. More would have been bought had the public properly appreciated the value of this investment. For the reason that each stamp costs $2 per head of the population over twenty a six month period do not represent the amount of savings which could have been so used without serious inconvenience.

These certificates and stamps give men and women—and children also—have limited means, an opportunity they will not otherwise have to help finance the war with benefit to themselves. The Government's exchequer cannot buy many war bonds; children can scarcely buy any by putting aside part of their spending money. The Government stamps are sold in relatively large denominations, requiring the investment of $30 or $100 or more per year. A certificate can be bought for as little as $4, and a stamp for 25 cents.

The idea is to put in the reach of every person a chance to buy for himself or herself a share in Canada's war debt. Since every one will have to help pay the debt, a saving certificate, rather than a war bond, is a financial self-defence. The debt-interest individual will have to pay will be offset by the interest paid to him when the certificate matures.

That consideration alone should all certificates and stamps be sold. The war has war taxes are certain; they are certain. Future earnings are uncertain. All savings certificates and stamps are sold at a profit. It is good business to buy them as protection against the coming tax demands.

A Breather Needed

Parliament is to adjourn when the debate on the address is ended. This is much the same as saying when the debate on the war effort has been concluded, since that has been the all but exclusive topic of discussion. It can be said that the House has been a world while. With proper deference to

By Harold L. Weir

The cup of nationalism is frequently filled to overflowing with the diluted waters of make-believe which the totalitarian nations use as baptismal fluid for the more palatable of their undertakings.

This cup is fairly upturned over with the news that comes from Shanghai.

It is reported, there, that on Saturday, with full pomp and pageantry, the Japanese government will sign a treaty with the synthetic Chinese government of Wang Ching-wei. In return for Japanese recognition, the Wang Ching-wei group gives Japan permanent control of China's military and police. The Japanese troops will remain in China for two years after the war, restored everywhere in the country.

Japan will call this "winning the war."

When Japan became part of the Axis, it was believed that Hitler would teach our little brown brothers the finer points of the international crooked game.

After reading of this projected ceremony on Saturday, one is driven to the conclusion that perhaps it is the Japanese who can teach Hitler something about it.

For of all the pretensions places of diplomatic poptcock this gesture takes the rain-dusted cake.

In the first place, this alleged "treaty" will be signed with a fictitious government that is Japan's own creation. Thus, Japan will be signing an agreement with herself.

In the second place, the pact purports to give Japan a hold on China that she never could win by force of arms in a thousand Chinese years.

It is the most absurd, most outlandish and most dishonest of all the diplomatic poptcock that has been perpetrated in this highly unscrupulous age.

It is a gesture directed to the n's degree of assiduity with an extra Gilbert and Sullivan flourish.

Her and his methods make such a grotesque picture that it would hardly think it could be caricatured.

The Japanese seem to have done it.

Another example of Hitlerism carried to its logical conclusion is seen in Rumania, where the Chief of State Ion Antonescu is striving desperately to stem the tide of blood and looting that has been poured into the country by the members of the Iron Guard who have embarked on a hard career of mass murder.

King Carol, who has been in exile since 1940, is a man of peace and is a man of peace. And, if the seed of violence was budding in the Iron Guard organization, the Iron Guard members which Carol permitted a year ago and which they then ousted, would appear to have been justified by the current.

The Hitler influence in "reformed" Rumania is the most sinister thing to ever befall any country.

Murder and massacre follow the march of the clouds.

Mr. Thomas Church of Toronto is asking the Government in the House of Commons today whether it proposes to recognize the authority of the Free French forces led by General Charles de Gaulle.

It is an unfair and indiscreet question because it is asked with the intention of making the Government of France look like a time when the adversary of Pierre and Miquel creates a delicate situation between Ottawa and Vichy.

Just days it would be foolish for Canada to disturb the relations of Canada and all France by precipitating a dispute with any such act of the French Government.

It is particularly true in view of the fact that next year may witness a reunion of all Frenchmen in which factions shall have no part.

Mr. Church knows very well that Great Britain is acting in the closest possible cooperation with the Government of Canada. The Canadian Government is similarly sympathetic.

So far as the Canadian public is concerned, de Gaulle's associations are springing up everywhere.

At a meeting in Edmonton, for instance, a meeting of de Gaulle sympathizers is being held in Memorial Hall tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock to which everyone interested is invited.

Why should Mr. Church, except for the mean purpose of embarrassing the government, want a formal expression of official opinion when the public opinion is so clearly evident?

Signor Mussolini, in spite of the recent coup d'etat in Italy, has not yet learned the lesson which the former has had in usual "bad luck," continues to play his Italian left-hand game.

Perthmore has recalled to his mind the words of Giuseppe Garibaldi, greatest of all Italians and the creator of modern Italy: "A man who did more for his country in a few short years than Mussolini could accomplish in a century."

On April 12, 1854, this great patriot wrote an open letter to Englishmen as follows: "England is a great and powerful nation, the land of liberty, of industry, of progress, of science, of civilization, of the future of the world, of the future of the world."

"But if ever England, your native country, should be so circumstanced as to require the help of an ally, directed by me, I shall be the first to step forward with me in her defense."

"Should England at any time in a just cause be so circumstanced as to require the help of an ally, directed by me, I shall be the first to step forward with me in her defense."

"Say, Doc, if you're planning on trading that crate in on a newer model, I know someone's got a 1920 Model T."

Today And Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann

The Rinsfield Player
During the past week the British and the Nazis have been exchanging heavy blows and many of the news reports have been asking themselves how long it will last. The answer is: it will last as long as the British and the Nazis are fighting.

It was dropped thousands of bombs on the industrial areas of Germany. The bombing was so effective that neither the newspaper reporting public nor the German government was very depressed. The knowledge of the effect, the Nazis with a view to the future, but they do not really take care, or if they do, that thousands of British bombs are inevitably fall either in one place or on what appear to be an infinite number of German hospitals. It is obvious that this is happening in Germany. It is a fact that the bombing is so effective that neither the newspaper reporting public nor the German government was very depressed.

Thus, the Nazis have bombed Coventry and Birmingham and that those cities have been bombed and destroyed. Our news reports of the German bombing of the British cities are so effective that neither the newspaper reporting public nor the German government was very depressed.

Six members of the Red Deer Club were winners of $8 war savings certificates in the second series of the club. The winners were Mrs. E. H. Moore, T. R. Johns, J. N. Stewart, E. J. Wiggins, H. P. Ellis and A. Houston.

Overhanging signs, and insurance against the city's liability for damage they might cause, were discussed at city council meeting this week. A survey showed a total of 14 signs overhanging the streets or sidewalks. After a full discussion the city commissioners were instructed to prepare a bylaw, whereby all sign-owners will have to get permits and pay the premiums on insurance of the signs.

ANDREW

Four candidates are in the field for trustees for Division 3 of the Lethbridge School Division. The candidates are: Andrew, Michael, Frank, and William.

The funeral service was conducted on Thursday by Rev. S. A. Marshall, Pallbearers were Messrs. Carl Finkler, Martin Law, David Smith and John Peterson.

Joe will be ready at the Lethbridge curling rink the beginning of next week and it is anticipated that the season will start off with a mixed bang.

At the meeting of the Curling Club held this week, plans were appointed and it is probable that even more rinks will be organized, as there is a large number of people who are interested in the sport.

LLOYDMINSTER

At the White House conference with President Roosevelt yesterday, the Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, Chairman Norman Davis of the American Red Cross, and Thomas W. Lamont, New York banker, who said he represented no relief organization but is interested in the problem, added that they considered "what can be done if it can be done."

The Red Cross solicited an allotment of $175,000 in medical and clothing relief for the Greek Red Cross today. This is additional to $400,000 previously allotted.

BENTON STATION

Three horses are dead as the result of eating too much wheat, left on the ground after threshing operations. The horses were found dead in the field, three miles southeast of Benton. This is a hard year for horses as there are many hastily constructed and open grain bins, but which have not been filled, and some grain left standing.

BRITISH PERMISSION The undertaking was said to be dependent largely on whether British authorities would permit the supplies to pass through the blockade of the European continent.

It was emphasized in informed quarters that there is no intention by authorities here to attempt a large-scale propaganda program, such as Herbert Hoover and others have been advertising for the relief of the victims of German-occupied countries.

With German troops and raiders taking a heavy toll of Britain's own supply ships, officials here expressed doubt that British authorities would be even less disposed to permit any relaxation of the blockade for the feeding of the general population of the Netherlands.

Given assurances, however, that only limited supplies of canned milk and similar items would be distributed to children under strict Red Cross supervision, British agreement to the plan was considered possible, especially for Spain and the Netherlands.

U.S. STUDIES CHILD RELIEF FRANCE, SPAIN

By J. C. STARR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Measures to alleviate suffering among European children this winter are being considered by the United States government and Red Cross authorities. It was learned Thursday night from a long White House conference on the foreign relief problem.

The plan calling for the shipment of canned milk, medicines and similar supplies to parts of Europe for the relief of only children, was described in informed quarters as still being in the tentative stage.

Unoccupied France and Spain are believed most likely to benefit if the plan becomes effective.

JASPER-EDSON M.P. DISLIKES MONEY POLICY

Walter Kuhl Takes Issue
With Finance Minister
In Parliament

OTTAWA, Nov. 28.—(CP)—By spreading war industries around the country, the government has a rare opportunity to stir out economic sectionalism in Canada. A. H. Benson (Con. Saskatoon) said Thursday night in his maiden speech in the House of Commons.

Since there was an approaching shortage of labor in one part of the country and a surplus in the west, the government should take advantage of the situation to place some new industries in areas not at present highly industrialized.

There should be diversified economy throughout the country, not merely so all parts might contribute to the war effort but to aid in the post-war adjustment.

DEBATE CONTINUED

Mr. Benson was the last of six members to speak during the night sitting, the others being T. C. Douglas (C.C.F. Weyburn), King (Cons. Saint John-Albert), Walter Kuhl (Ind. Alberta East), and Hester (Lib. Chippewa).

Continuing the speech debate, Mr. Benson expressed regret that free transportation was not to be given to men of the armed forces going on Christmas leave.

Mr. Benson regretted the government's policy against conscription for overseas service and said he would not reconcile it with the government's statement that the first line of Canadian defense is the British Isles. The policy that men would go overseas except as volunteers "acks lack, realism and foresight."

"MONEY POWERS"

Mr. Kuhl claimed the "money powers" were the enemy within as dangerous as any outside the country.

He claimed millions had been spent by the bankers to defeat monetary reform. Every man who had ever lived to effect any change had to run into that opposition.

If money was not the trouble today, why were there still so many unemployed men?

Finance Minister J. L. Ruddy had said in effect that it was dangerous for the state to issue money. Such a statement was "backed in a democracy," said Mr. Kuhl.

He suggested the report of the Bowditch Committee should be considered in public by a constituent assembly of delegates of all classes and provincial groups.

BRITAIN'S NEED

Expressing how Canada would make the material contribution to the war in its military organization, Mr. Audley said no more troops should be sent overseas than needed. He believed Britain's present need was not for men, but for munitions and money.

He said the government was doing all in its power to meet the need, but urged that a little more attention be paid to the war in Canada, particularly in Quebec where about 50,000 persons were not making enough farm revenue to live properly.

Mr. Benson said much of the present business paralysis in the prairie could have been prevented except for the lack of government action regarding advance payments on farm-stored wheat.

The result was that prairie merchants now were unable to advance further credit. The cash the farmers got for wheat delivered to elevator under the present system was spent long before the first wheat arrived and farmers now were unable to buy seed.

Mr. Benson said the government should advance payments on farm-stored wheat.

He asked the government to tell what actually went on at the meeting of the Wheat Board, the government and the banks in the question. He asked the reasons for the refusal of the banks to make the advance. What kind of a guarantee did the banks want? Why was not a guarantee offered by the government?

The suggestion had been made that some time would be given to the Dominion wheat board to provide provincial assistance of the advance.

FARMERS' NEED

The previous speaker considered the question was one of Dominion responsibility. It was not what strength would there be in a guarantee by Saskatchewan, when that province had difficulty in doing its own work?

It was not just a matter of "draining old straw." The question of wheat advances was real to the farmers and merchants of western Canada.

Next year the whole 1941 crop probably would have to be kept on the farm.

Reid Hamuth (Con. Waterloo South) in his speech said he was afraid the government was not intended to let the question of advance wheat.

Over The Fence—But Not Out

A Royal Air Force sergeant-pilot concludes a busy day with his leap over a fence enclosing a field a few miles from his home airport. While on a lone patrol, he encountered a flight of Messerschmitt 109s over the north of the Thames estuary. The enemy failed to give battle and turned back. Tommy chased them clear to the French coast where he cut off and downed one. Over the channel on the way home, he and Spitfire ran out of gas and he glided to a little field where he set his craft down in a perfect three-pointer.

SUPPLY PHASE OF WAR NEEDS IS PARAMOUNT

Minister Outlines Industrial Program To Provide War Munitions

OTTAWA, Nov. 28.—(CP)—Controls established by the department of munitions and supply to ensure that Canadian munitions and resources are not used to meet war needs, have more than tripled the department's staff since last April, Supply Minister C. D. Howe said Thursday night.

In a statement, Mr. Howe said the staff today reached the 1,100 mark, up from 325 when the department took over the work of the war supply board April 9.

Mr. Howe said the rapid increase in personnel resulted chiefly from the increase in the number of munitions and armament orders, and the variety of munitions and armament orders, and the variety of munitions and armament orders.

WHEAT ECONOMY CANNOT CHANGE IN SHORT TIME

Calgary, Nov. 28.—(CP)—Built up over the course of the last 35 years and responsible for bringing billions of dollars into circulation, the wheat economy of western Canada cannot be changed overnight.

And should the time arrive when it must be changed, "we must be sure we are right," J. H. Weason, chairman of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, told the 18th annual convention of Alberta Pool delegates yesterday. Mr. Weason was speaking at the annual convention of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, which was held in Calgary yesterday.
